

If you are looking for a complete software solution,
you are at the right place

Enformasyon Destek Sistemi
(Information Support System)

Enfotek

ERP and Software Solutions

Enfotek is producing customized software solutions for exporting or domestic businesses of every size. Enfotek EDS, serves the control your business needs. Enfotek EDS helps you to discover the most successful business model. The software brings tried and true organization, planning and monitoring methods to your business. Drive down your costs, increase your effectiveness and operate with a more conscious control with Enfotek EDS.

High Level Coordination and Management

A company's management, like the brain of the body, has to overcome complex and arduous tasks. It has to establish a strategy, organize [resources] and must have instantaneous checks and balances to see whether everything is working as planned. Enfotek EDS is a robust aid for management in this tough environment. Software presents complex data produced by company as desired, with its rich reporting options. By its nature, Enfotek EDS provides standardization of business processes and balances distribution of work across the organization. Enfotek EDS, provides access to true, accurate and reliable information across all managerial levels. Enfotek EDS' confirmation and automated warning systems create a digital nervous system.

Integrated Database: Enfotek EDS, stores order, cost, raw material, planning and production data in a detailed relational structure.

“New Business” Modeling: Prior to deployment, company's business process is studied and best methods are identified.

Work Organization: Management works with the task distribution it desires.

Lateral Inspection: There is fast and accurate information flow for both between managerial levels and between departments and units.

Process Planning and Monitoring: Enfotek EDS automatically plans processes and authorizes users for every order, notifying delays and other issues.

Product and Order Management

Sustainability of a company is highly dependent on successful management of customer relationships. Apart from offering fast and accurate service with acceptable costs, a company needs to prove its expertise and business competency. This is only possible with a powerful order management. Enfotek EDS, provides digital conversion of all order management data and it provides customer representative absolute control over collection, sample details, technical order requirements and product – material list. Multiple customer – model relationship: Enfotek EDS, allows free modelling and recoding technical information by model for collection creating efforts.

Quick Cost Estimation: Enfotek EDS supports generating prices by model and integrates necessary parameters such as raw material, accessories and labor to rapidly calculate quotes.

Detailed Order Filing: Enfotek EDS records model and order in a relation structure of model size, price, country and store / business.

Order Amount Revision Control: Revision of order amount automatically revises material requirements and purchase and, logs the change.

Technical Directions and Measurement Table with Embed Image:

Enfotek EDS supports creating a table of technical directions and measurements with images, recorded by model. Images can be edited with graphic tools. Also, it enables recording of alternatives and change logs for a model.

Sample Tracking: Enfotek EDS, sampling module enables internal communication between marketing and sample provider to generate workorders, production planning and customer confirmation control for samples.

Production Monitoring: Enfotek EDS updates production related information on order files instantaneously, enabling marketing to always access to accurate production information.

Integrated Storage: Enfotek EDS integrates purchase and free purchase orders, and purchase department can constantly monitor what has entered and left the storage.

Raw material Monitoring: Enfotek EDS generates dispatch orders of raw materials for customer orders which use raw materials. Dispatch notes are generated automatically. Raw material wastage is monitored across production process.

Quality Control: Enfotek EDS is integrated to quality control module of inventory reception. Enables recording and monitoring statistical control and laboratory test data.

Process Management

A company's planning activities enables best utilization of resources, decreases costs and preventing order fulfillment delays.

Automatic pre-planning: Enfotek EDS generates an order process plan upon receiving order and authorizes appropriate user.

Production Planning: Enfotek EDS integrated process planning and production planning.

Management Contingency Warnings: Enfotek EDS sends a warning to management when conditions set by management is not met.

Material Planning, Purchase, Inventory Management

Raw material requirement planning, supply and storage operations are most expensive parts of production costs. Errors in these processes may cause serious waste and production delays. Enfotek EDS, enables generation of fast and error-free cost calculations by providing cost estimation modules that is specifically designed for your business processes.

Enfotek EDS systematize requirement planning, supply and storage needs by utilizing company specific stock coding structures.

Enfotek EDS, provides convenience by powerful automated tools, of whose design is supported by Enfotek's years of textile supply know-how and experience.

Marketing to Production Integration: Enfotek EDS standardizes material information and enabling single material information to be used in inter-departmental communications. Each department records department relevant material information to generate through material information.

Product Tree Generation: Enfotek EDS enables size based product trees for varying models. Upon generating a preliminary database, copying and editing increases the rate of product tree and product tree description generations.

Material Requirement Calculations: Enfotek EDS, considers production and supply waste in order - material level, it calculates requirement amounts automatically based on variant model, size and special orders and converts this data to material demands. Then, material demands are relayed to purchase department.

Easy Purchase: Enfotek EDS, automatically relays material description to purchase department. Purchase department does not lose labor time on searching for relevant data. Instead, it can focus on finding supply of precise material at appropriate costs.

Stock Reservation Support: during the purchase, Enfotek EDS generates a warning based on free stock and can reserve space for individual items or in batch level.

Barcoded Production Efficiency Monitoring: Enfotek EDS supports employee efficiency monitoring by operation barcode printing and barcode entry at employee level.

Quality Control: Enfotek EDS supports manual quality control data entry and reporting, integrated with barcode system.

Cost Control

Regardless of a company's size, a key issue is accurate estimation and monitoring of costs. Increases in product and process variety causes cost control items amounts to thousands. Enfotek EDS, provides you with ability to calculate costs precisely and error-free with its cost estimation modules, designed by your business' processes. Thousands of calculations are conducted independently every day in a business and Enfotek EDS provides necessary information to budget, accounting and finances.

With its advanced data infrastructure, Enfotek EDS relates all operations in terms of price, cost and exchange rate information, that is, providing monitoring and control for each individual cost item.

Pre-cost: Enfotek EDS supports quick pre-cost calculations based on previously categorized and recorded costs. Estimates are integrated with study case database and can calculate labor costs automatically.

Purchase Price Control: Enfotek EDS, combines integrated databases and previous purchases for price control and, allows multi-level price confirmation.

Dispatch – Invoice matching: Enfotek EDS enables quick control of contract price against invoice and controls order amount against amount in dispatch note.

Instantaneous Stock Costing: Enfotek EDS integrates various methods such as FIFO and LIFO with different currencies to find average or partial costs.

Production Cost Control: Enfotek EDS, standardizes production methods and provides methods to decrease idle time so that labor costs can be reduced.

Supplier Evaluation: Enfotek EDS' supplier evaluation modules enable seasonal supplier and cost evaluation.

Real Order Costs: Enfotek EDS controls actualized order costs against pre-costs and creates related tables automatically.

With its advanced data infrastructure, Enfotek EDS relates all operations in terms of price, cost and exchange rate information, that is, providing monitoring and control for each individual cost item.

Production Management

High quality, low cost and timely production is the primary goal of all manufacturing organizations. These conditions can only be met with constant education, control and proactive development of production units. This type of progress requires an integrated information system for production units.

Enfotek EDS includes specialize tools for planning and monitoring of production units. It supports manual, barcode based and hardware based data collection. Advanced study databases, which are exclusive to Enfotek, supports high level standardization. Line balancing and efficiency monitoring modules makes ideal development of production possible.

Study Based Prediction: Enfotek EDS, records operations and product features in a parametric and relational structure, with help of its hierarchical time study database.

Advanced Production Scheduling: With its advanced process management tools, Enfotek EDS supports production scheduling integrated with material resource planning.

Cutting Room Management: Integrated with product trees, Enfotek EDS, makes cutting orders and marker planning easy in distinct orders and in cloth allotment.

Advanced study databases, which are exclusive to Enfotek, supports high level standardization.

fast, easy, robust ERP

Financial affairs Management

Financial affairs management includes the modules which officially retrieve, integrate and record data from other modules. Financial affairs module is composed of cash, currents, banking, stock, invoicing, check /bonds, fixed assets and cost accounting sub-modules. As absolute integration introduces central control to Financial Affairs Management module, it is able to monitor and inspect all other modules. In a cost based accounting perspective, accounting plan is disciplined and possibility of using unnecessary accounting items is reduced.

Cash: It is possible to set up cash account for varying currencies and transfer between accounts and branches.

Inventory: Enables grouped or categorized monitoring of stock.

Invoicing: Integrates dispatch notes, invoices and recording into accounting. VAT and other taxes are included parametrically.

Current Accounts: Provides monitoring of any current account of any currency, showing payments and receivables. It is also integrated to show related documentation.

Banking: Payment automation based on payable and receivable lists.

Check / Bonds: Enables paying with or receiving checks and bonds, control of activity, evaluation of exchange rate at maturity and recording into accounting.

Accounting: Main module of entire financial affairs module, where principles of operation and style / content of reporting is managed.

Accounting for Treasury: Module for managing criteria of calculation and reporting for future reporting to state.

Fixed Assets: Monitoring of all fixed assets within a legal scope.

Human Resources Management

You can not only monitor all personnel records and related action dynamically due to consolidating features, but also you can report it without using any other applications. It includes most recent legal applications, can organize employees in an organizational chart and supports dynamic columns with drag / drop functions so that reports can be customized as desired. It is also integrate to accounting to automatically include payments to employees in accounting.

ERP ve Yazılım Çözümleri

İzmir Yüksek Teknoloji Geliştirme Bölgesi A1 Blok No: 5 İYTE - Urla / İZMİR

Telefon: 0 232 765 90 50 | Faks: 0 232 765 90 51

www.enfotek.com.tr

info@enfotek.com.tr